

Then slowly, she began to descend the staircase, gracefully scattering roses as she went along and then she stood midway of the staircase. Here again the Blessed Mother spoke, "I am very happy to see this great demonstration of Faith."

Sister Pierina asked for many of the sinners to be forgiven. The Blessed Mother replied, "My Divine Son will show His Greatest Mercy as much as the people pray for them. I want this to be known and told to the Pope (PiusXII). Tell him I want him to install the "Hour of Grace" through the whole world and even those who are not able to go to church during this hour will receive the same graces by praying during this time in their home at noon time." She also asked that a statue be made and placed on the spot where she stood. This should be called the "Rosa Mystica", and carried in a procession through the town, at which time many graces will be given and cures will take place. Then the statue is to be returned to the church. Our Lady prayed for the sick, some will be cured, others will not. Many men, women and children were cured at that very instant.

A 26 yr. old woman who could not say a word for nine months suddenly began shouting, "I see her. I see the Blessed Virgin." An 18 yr. old girl with ulcers was instantly cured. A 5 yr. old boy who had been paralyzed was told by the Blessed Mother, "Come to me, you will be walking now." He was placed on the blessed stones and was able to walk. There were three others who were very sick and were immediately cured. But of course, the greatest miracles taking place were those of the spiritual blessings being shed upon the people gathered in the church. The Blessed Mother said, "This is the last time I will appear here. Pray, weep and do penance on these stones and you will receive the care of my Motherly Heart." She then left the little church, but because of the unending love of Our Heavenly Mother, She has given us "The Hour of Grace" to be spread through the entire world. She had given all the opportunity to demonstrate our love and trust to her and to help make reparation for the grievous sins offending her beloved son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ.

PSALM 51

The Miserere: Prayers of Repentance, A psalm of David when Nathan the prophet came to him after his sin with Bathsheba.

Have mercy upon me, O God, in your goodness; in the greatness of your compassion wipe out my offense. Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me. For I acknowledge my transgressions and my sin is ever before me. Against You only, have I sinned and done this evil in Your sight; that You may be justified in your sentence, vindicated when You condemn. Indeed, in guilt was I born and in sin my mother conceived me. Behold, You are pleased with sincerity of heart, and in my inmost being you teach me wisdom. Cleanse me of sin with hyssop, that I may be purified; wash me and I shall be whiter than snow. Let me hear the sounds of joy and gladness; the bones you have crushed shall rejoice. Turn Your face from my sins, and blot out all my guilt. A clean heart create in me, O God, and a steadfast spirit renew within me. Cast me not out from Your presence, and Your Holy Spirit take not from me. Give me back the joy of Your salvation, and a willing spirit sustain in me. I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners shall return to You. Free me from blood guilt, O God, my saving God; then my tongue shall revel in you justice. O Lord, open my lips and my mouth shall proclaim Your praise. For you are not pleased with sacrifices; should I offer a holocaust, you would not accept it. My sacrifice, O God, is a contrite spirit; a heart contrite and humbled, O God, you will not spurn. Be bountiful, O Lord, to Zion in Your kindness by rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem. Then shall You be pleased with due sacrifices, burnt offerings and holocausts; then shall they offer up bullocks on your altar.
