Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday in the United States we celebrate STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY. This annual celebration reminds us to consider how we are doing in terms of our stewardship. Are we using our time and talents and treasure in a way that pleases Almighty God? These gifts were given to us to use in the best possible way. They are very valuable as you know. Our time is given to us only here on earth and is a valuable gift from God. Are we using time well? Our talents are given to us to be multiplied and used to the best of our ability. They are special gifts and God will call us to account for the way we have or have not used well the gift of our talents. And finally whatever treasure we have we should not squander on ourselves. God expects us to share generously whatever we have with others and with the community of the Church. Thank you to all who have helped the Diocese this year with the Diocesan Fund Drive. We are close to making our goals at both St. Sylvester as well as St. John's. Thanks to all those who help out with Bingo each week and with school activities to raise needed funds. And thanks to all who have given of their time and talents and treasure to help our parish families of St. Sylvester and St. John's. May God reward each of you for your generosity.

This week looks rather quiet and perhaps it is the lull before the beginning of the holiday season which is right around the corner. I hope that you enjoy this prelude to a busy time from Thanksgiving to Christmas.

As we continue in this period of Eucharistic renewal called for by the U.S. Bishops let us consider these words from the little book: JESUS OUR EUCHARISTIC LOVE: "And so, Jesus truly is with us. 'Jesus is there!' The holy Cure of Ars could not finish repeating these three words without shedding tears. And St. Peter Julian Eymard exclaimed with joyful fervor, 'There is Jesus! Therefore all of us should go visit Him!' And when St. Theresa of Jesus heard someone say, 'If only I had lived at the time of Jesus...' she responded in a lively manner, 'But do we not have in the Eucharist the living, true and real Jesus present before us? Why look for more?'" These great saints spoke truly.

Have a good week everyone.

Sincerely yours,

Father Timothy Davison
